- Professional indemnity with an overall limit of not less than A$5,000,000 per occurrence.
- Compulsory Third Party Bodily Injury covering all motor vehicles engaged in the Services.

12.2 The insurances referred to in these sub-clauses shall be obtained in the name of the Company, the Contractor and all its sub-contractors and shall contain a cross liability endorsement and a waiver of subrogation clause naming the insured, their directors, officers and employees as interested parties under the policy.

13.0 TERMINATION

13.1 The Company may terminate this Agreement immediately on written notice to the Contractor if the Contractor becomes insolvent, commits an act of bankruptcy, enters into administration, appoints a liquidator, receiver, manager or controller, or if the Contractor breaches any term of this Agreement, including any of the warranties, without prejudice to any other rights (including damages) that the Company may have as a result of the Contractor's breach.

13.2 If the Company terminates this Agreement under clause 13.1, the Contractor will not be entitled to any claim against the Company.

13.3 The Company may, at any time and without reason during the performance of the Services, terminate this Agreement by notice in writing to the Contractor. In the event of such termination the liability of the Company to the Contractor shall not exceed the amounts properly payable (in the case of schedule of rates agreement) for Services completed at the date of termination or, in the case of a lump sum agreement, for the value of the Services completed by the Contractor at the date of termination.

14.0 ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING

14.1 The Contractor may not assign this Agreement in whole or in part without the prior written consent of the Company, and such consent shall be entirely at the discretion of the Company.

14.2 The Company may assign its rights and obligation under this Agreement at any time by notifying the Contractor of such assignment.

14.3 The Contractor may not sub-contract any supply of the Goods or Services required under this Agreement without the Company's prior written consent.

15.0 GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws for the time being of the State of Western Australia and all courts competent to hear appeals therefrom.

16.0 INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

The Contractor shall undertake the Agreement as an independent contractor and neither the Contractor nor any of its sub-contractors nor their respective employees, agents or servants shall be considered as agents, servants or employees of the Company for any purpose whatsoever. The Contractor shall not bind or commit or purport to bind or commit the Company in any way whatsoever, except with prior written consent of the Company.

17.0 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 17.1 The Contractor shall, and shall ensure that its sub-contractors and its personnel shall, keep secret and confidential and not disclose to any third party any information, data, specification, drawings, reports or other documents and things supplied by the Company to the Contractor or brought into existence by the Contractor during the performance of this Agreement and the Contractor shall take or cause to be taken such reasonable precautions as may be necessary to maintain secrecy and confidentiality in matters herein referred.
- 17.2 The Contractor shall not advertise, publish or release information to the public concerning this Agreement, the Services or the operation of the Company without prior written consent of the Company.
- 17.3 The obligations of the Contractor under this Clause shall continue notwithstanding the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

18.0 VARIATIONS

- 18.1 The Company may at any time and from time to time by notice in writing to the Contractor, vary the Scope of Services by way of increase or decrease in the scope or change in the character quality, number or identity of the personnel, tools and equipment or materials used in the performance of the scope.
- 18.2 The Contractor shall comply with the notice and shall be bound by the same conditions as though the contents of the notice and any variation thereby made were included in the Agreement.
- 18.3 In so far as they are applicable, the prices and rates for the Goods and Services shall be used by the Contractor to calculate the cost of a variation but otherwise the cost of a variation shall be estimated by the Contractor at the lowest reasonable cost consistent with sound construction practices.
- 18.4 The Contractor shall not be entitled to a variation without written notice from the Company.

19.0 FORCE MAJEURE

- 19.1 Neither Party shall be liable for failure to perform its obligations if such failure results from Force Majeure.
- 19.2 For the purposes of this Agreement "Force Majeure" shall mean a cause of any kind whatsoever beyond the reasonable control of the Party affected and which could not have been avoided by the exercise of due diligence by the Party affected, the Party claiming Force Majeure shall use all possible diligence to remove the cause of the Force Majeure as quickly as possible, insofar as it is able to do so. If any period of Force Majeure continues for fourteen (14) days or more, the Company may terminate the Agreement in accordance with clause 13.0 of this Agreement.

20.0 SET-OFF AND AUDIT

- 20.1 The Company may deduct from payments to the Contractor any amounts due from or payable by the Contractor.
- 20.2 The Contractor must maintain a correct set of records relating to the performance or purported performance of this Agreement.
- 20.3 The Company shall have the right during this Agreement and for two (2) years thereafter, to examine, copy and audit the Contractor's and its sub-contractor's books and records to verify the Contractor's invoices and this right shall continue notwithstanding the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

21.0 WARRANTY

- 21.1 The Contractor must hold manufacturer or supplier warranties that adequately cover any goods, products or materials used in conjunction with the Goods and Services. The protection of all such warranties must extend to the Company.
- 21.2 The Contractor must provide no less than 12 months warranty from the completion date on all Goods and Services. If the Contractor is able to provide a longer warranty on any of the Goods and Services, then it must provide the longer warranty period to the Company (Warranty Period).
- 21.3 At any time during the Warranty Period, the Company may direct the Contractor to rectify any omission, fault or defect in the Goods and Services. The Contractor must do so at its own cost and at times and in a manner which causes as little inconvenience to the operations of the Company as is reasonably possible.
- 21.4 The Warranty Period will likewise apply to any part of the Goods and Services which has been re-performed, repaired or replaced in accordance with clause 21.3.

- 21.5 If the omission, fault or defect is not rectified by the Contractor in accordance with this clause 21.0 and within the time required by the Company, the Company may rectify, or arrange for others to rectify, the non-compliant Goods and Services at the Contractor's cost which shall constitute a debt due from the Contractor to the Company, but without prejudice to any other rights which the Company may have against the Contractor.

- 21.6 The Contractor warrants that it is and shall remain while performing the Services fully experienced and properly qualified, registered and/or licensed, equipped, organised and financed to carry out the Services under this Agreement.

22.0 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 22.1 Any dispute between the Parties must be resolved in accordance with the provisions of this clause.
- 22.2 The Parties acknowledge that while disputes may arise from time to time, their common intent is to ensure that any dispute is resolved in a timely and cost effective manner.
- 22.3 In the event of any dispute or difference arising between the Contractor and the Company, as to the construction of this Agreement or as to any matter or thing of whatever nature arising under or in connection with this Agreement, then either Party will give to the other notice in writing adequately identifying the matters and subject of that dispute or difference.
- 22.4 Within five (5) days of service of a notice, the Parties' respective senior executive officers must meet and use all their reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute.
- 22.5 If the Parties are unable to resolve the dispute within a further ten (10) days after meeting in accordance with clause 22.4;

- (a) the Contractor may serve a notice to the Company requiring the Company to, within 5 business days, elect for the dispute to be referred to either:
 - (i) arbitration in accordance with, and subject to, the Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia Rules for the Conduct of Commercial Arbitrations; or
 - (ii) litigation in a competent court of Western Australia.

and if the Company fails to respond with 5 business days, the Contractor may commence proceedings in either of the forums identified in subclauses (i) and (ii) above; or

- (b) the Company may elect to have the dispute referred and may commence proceedings in either forum identified in subclause (a)(i) and (a)(ii) of this clause 22.5.

- 22.6 If the dispute is referred to arbitration in accordance with clause 22.5, unless the parties agree upon an arbitrator, either party may request a nomination from either the President OR the Chapter Chairman of the Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators Australia, Western Australia.

- 22.7 The commencement of legal determination pursuant to this clause 22.0 shall be a pre-condition to either Party seeking relief before the courts of any place.

- 22.8 Notwithstanding the existence of any dispute, the Parties agree that during any period of such dispute the Contractor will continue to perform its obligations without limitation under the Agreement as if no such dispute exists between the Parties.
